

Educational Technology at MHG

Triinu Pihus
Educational Technologist

Estonia's lifelong learning strategy 2020

Digital competence

Readiness to use digital technology to cope in a rapidly changing knowledge society, both at work, when studying, when acting as a citizen, and when communicating in communities.

National Curricula of Elementary and Secondary Schools

Integrated into subject lessons

Digital Competence Model in Estonia

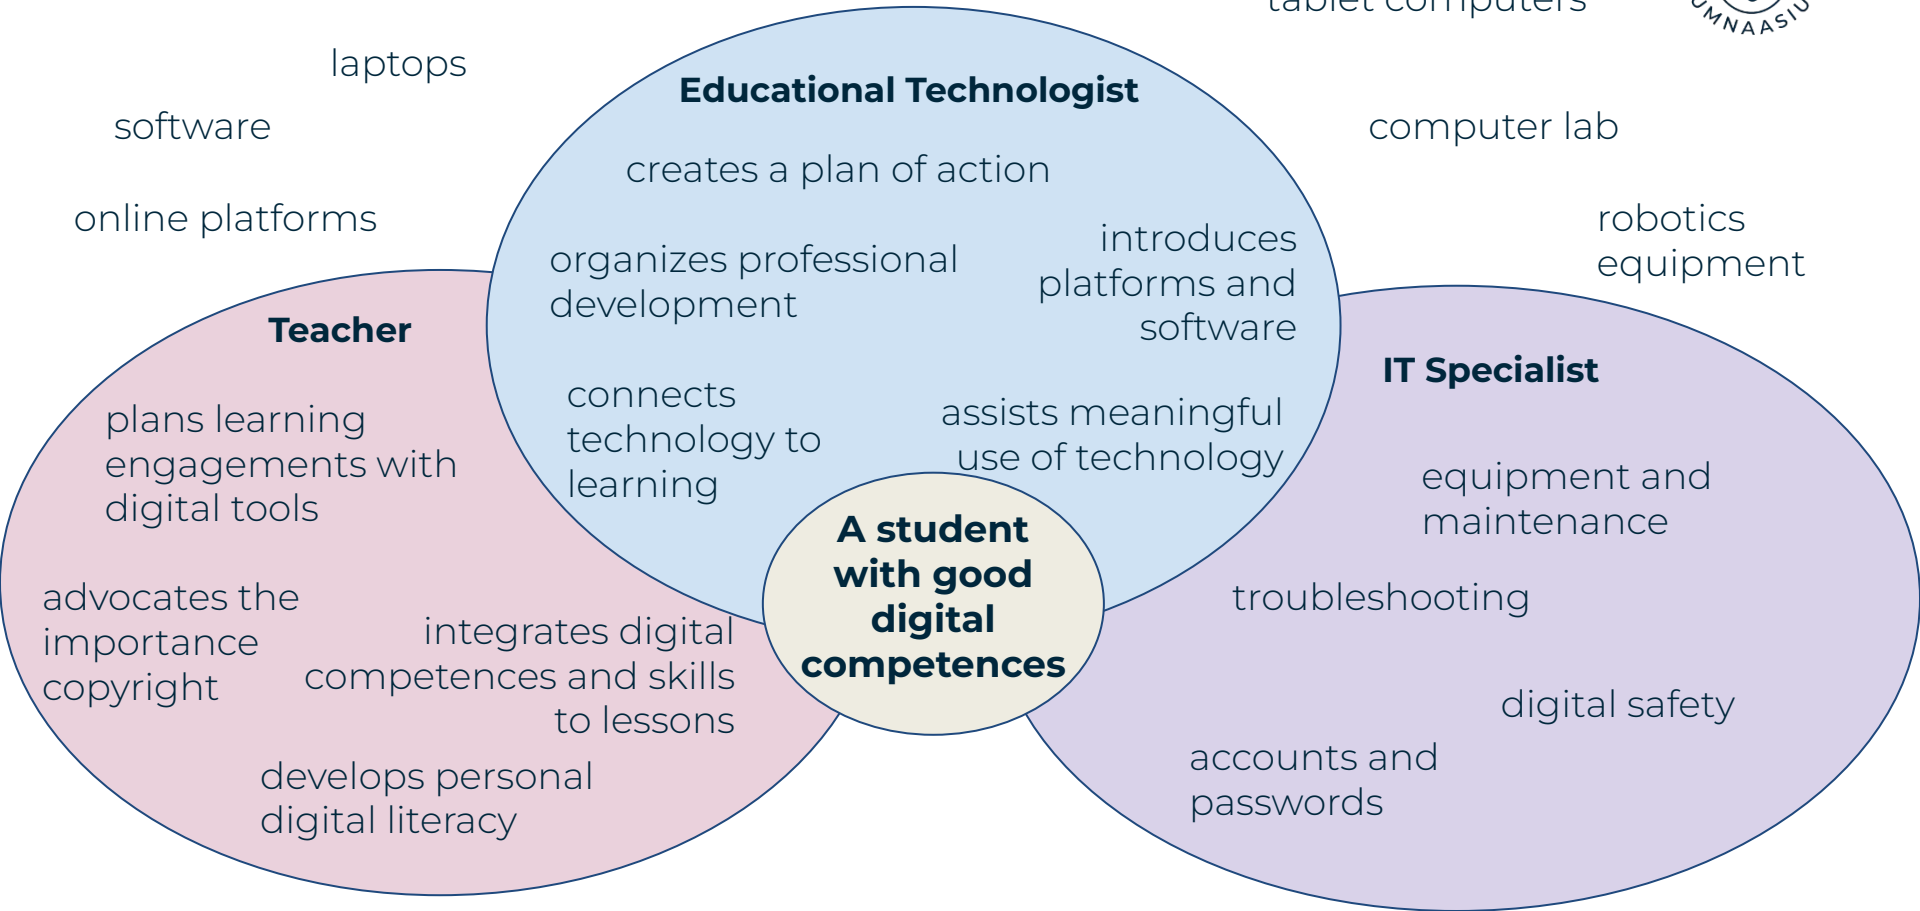

Teacher's Digital Competences

- ❖ Professional development and involvement
 - communication, cooperation, reflection and self-improvement
- ❖ Digital learning materials
 - selecting, creating and sharing digital learning materials
- ❖ Teaching and learning
 - managing and implementing digital technology for learning
- ❖ Evaluation
 - using digital technology for assessment
- ❖ Student empowerment
 - engage, differentiate and individualise student support

Student's Digital Competences

- ❖ Information and data literacy
 - working with digital information
- ❖ Communication and cooperation in the digital environment
 - collaborating using digital technology
- ❖ Creation of digital content
 - developing digital content with appropriate copyright licenses
- ❖ Digital safety
 - protecting digital devices and personal data etc
- ❖ Troubleshooting
 - solving technical problems

Collaborative responsibility

Developing Digital Competences at MHG

- ❖ curriculum of digital competences
- ❖ explicit teaching of digital skills
- ❖ Using technology meaningfully
- ❖ digital competences of teachers
- ❖ Exploring new digital tools and technologies

Any questions?